How it Works?

When you arrive your event space will be ready for you to walk in and begin to decorate, organize, and then relax before your guests arrive. Your beverage selections, with all the accompanying items, will be ready for you when you arrive. We don't want you to worry about a thing when it comes to drinks. We will have everything you could possibly need!

You can calculate your total cost by selecting the room that fits your needs, add the beverage cost, and calculate tax. Invoice will be generated at time of booking. Securing your event space and date requires a 50% non-refundable deposit. Invoice will be finalized on event date when the remaining balance is due. If for any reason you need to reschedule your event, no problem! You may choose any available day/time within 30 days of your original event date.

Hostesses and key help generally arrive at start time chosen. Guest Invitations typically state a party start time about 45-60 minutes later, completely at your discretion of course. Please leave one hour for packing up ahead of conclusion time.
